

AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN SURGERY

In 1992 Council resolved to create awards to recognise excellence in surgery in Australia and New Zealand. The Awards may be for clinical performance, for research or for education and may be made to an individual, a unit or a group.

Nominations for Awards shall be made to Council by Fellows of the RACS with appropriate supporting documentation.

Criteria for Awards for Excellence in Surgery are:

- The highest level of surgical achievement by world standards
- Leadership in the field of Australasia
- Innovation and/or advancement in the field
- Sustained standard and sustained worth of the innovation
- The highest standards of surgical ethics

The award is recognized with a College Plaque.

An asterisk (*) indicates that the person is deceased.
