

Morning program

|             |                                                                                                          |
|-------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:30am      | Registration, tea and coffee.                                                                            |
| 9:00am      | Welcome: Convenors, Dr Sean Haywood, FRACS, and Dr Ben Wagstaff, FRACS                                   |
| 9:10am      | Welcome to Country and Smoking Ceremony                                                                  |
| Session one |                                                                                                          |
| 9:20am      | Dr Michael Solomon – Keynote address                                                                     |
| 9:50am      | Krister Patel (AHPRA)Regulation, Notifications &amp; What Every Surgeon Should Know           |
| 10:10am     | Dr Jon RyanMedicare Rebates: What Every Surgeon Needs to Know                                 |
| 10:30am     | Avant: Sponsor Presentation                                                                              |
| 10:50am     | Morning tea and trade exhibition                                                                  |
| Session two |                                                                                                          |
| 11:10am     | Dr Hazel Serrao-BrownThyroid Radiofrequency Ablation: Implementation in an Australian Setting |
| 11:40am     | Dr Aileen FitzgeraldStreamlining and Strengthening SIMG Pathways                              |
| 12:00pm     | Associate Professor Susan NeuhausSurgeons at War                                              |
| 12:30pm     | Tess Green: Foundation for Surgery                                                                       |
| 12:40pm     | Gold sponsor presentation                                                                                |
| 12:50pm     | Lunch and trade exhibition                                                                        |

Afternoon program

Session three

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1:40pm         | Dr Damir LjuharSimulation Based Surgical Training in Australia and the Pacific                                                                                            |
| 2:10pm         | Professor Noel Tait – Opening of Research Paper Presentations                                                                                                                        |
| 2:25pm         | Free Paper Presentations                                                                                                                                                      |
| 3:20pm         | Dr Ram GanesalingamThe CHS Clinical Surveillance Program: A Digitally Enabled Proof of Concept for Managing Chronic Disease Surveillance and Outpatient Capacity Pressure |
| 3:40pm         | Afternoon tea                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 4:00pm         | Gold sponsor presentation                                                                                                                                                            |
| 4:10pm         | Professor David CroakerPaediatric Surgical Aid Mission                                                                                                                    |
| 4:30pm         | Dr Phil Morreau – Presidential address                                                                                                                                               |
| 4:50pm         | Closing remarks and highlightsDr Sean Heywood, FRACS and Dr Ben Wagstaff, FRACS                                                                                                  |
| 5:00pm onwards | Awards ceremony, drinks and canapés                                                                                                                                                  |

