

Provisional Program –Family Violence – Health System Response

Thursday 10 November 2022 – 9.00am– 4.00pm
Jubilee Room, NSW Parliament House, 6 Macquarie Street, Sydney

Time	Topic	Presenter
0900	Welcome to country	Michael West, elder
0915	Welcome to 2022 RACS Trauma Symposium	Sally Langley
0920	Survivor Advocate	Talie Star
0930	Welcome to Parliament House - Introduction	Joe McGirr MLA
0935	Opening	Natalie Ward MLA
0945	Outline summary (conveners)	Payal Mukherjee and Ken Harrison
0950	Current role of health professionals in family violence	Michelle Atkinson
1000 Morning Tea
1030	Domestic violence from a health system approach – we can do better	Lai Heng Foong
1045	Data and response - NSW	Mayet Costello
1100	Enabling health services response to family violence	Kelsey Hegarty
1115	Perpetrator Accountability	John Sammut
1130 Break
1140	Breakout Sessions – 4 x 30 min
	Session 1 – Data	Facilitator: Mayet Costello
	Session 2 – How can hospitals and health services support practitioners to do the work?	Facilitator: Kelsey Hegarty
	Session 3 Role of males as champions of change	Facilitators: John Sammut and John Crozier
	Session 4: Rural – How does this relate in rural areas and what are we able to do?	Facilitator: Joe McGirr/ Andy Buck Metropolitan Facilitator Virtual participants J.McGirr office
1210	Report from Session 1
1225	Report from Session 2
1240	Report from Session 3
1255	Report from Session 4
1310 Lunch
1400	Survivor Advocate	Talie Star
1415	Participants forum - Setting the scene	Payal Mukherjee and Ken Harrison
1420	Panel discussion/participants forum Q & A	Sally Langley; Talie Star, Kelsey Hegarty, Mayet Costello; John Sammut, Alan Sandford; Indigenous health worker/education tba
1550	Summation and workforce culture values	Payal Mukherjee and Ken Harrison
1600	Finish

with thanks to our sponsor

