

FREE SEMINAR SA Audit of Surgical Mortality 12 APRIL 2018

Education Development Centre
4 Milner Street, Hindmarsh

NOBODY TOLD ME - POOR COMMUNICATION KILLS

A case series and panel discussion highlighting the importance of effective communication

FREE REGISTRATION

Open to all health professionals

Please visit: <https://surgeons.eventsair.com/saasm18/saasm18>

Or alternatively contact the SAASM Office: 08 8239 1144
saasm@surgeons.org

CPD/CME

This educational activity has been approved in the RACS CPD Program. Fellows who participate can claim 1 point per hour in Maintenance of Knowledge and Skills.

MIGA doctors who attend this event can earn 5 MIGA Points in the Risk Management Program year 1 April 2018 to 31 March 2019

This event has been approved in the College of Intensive Care Medicine CPD program for Lectures – Category 2A, points per hour 1

TIME	PRESENTATION	PRESENTER
6:00pm - 6:30pm	Registration and refreshments
6:30pm - 6:35pm	Introduction and opening remarks	Mr Glenn McCulloch SAASM Clinical Director
6:35pm - 7:00pm	Communication issues in General Surgery	Associate Professor George Kiroff Consultant General Surgeon, TQEH
	Communication issues in nursing	Ms Dianne Callahan Acting Director of Nursing, Site Manager, Modbury Hospital
	Communication issues in Vascular Surgery	Dr Ewan Macaulay Consultant Vascular Surgeon, RAH
	Communication issues in intensive care & impact of new electronic health record	Dr Santosh Verghese Senior Intensive Care Specialist, FMC
	Legal perspective on communication issues	Ms Cheryl McDonald National Manager of Claims and Legal Services, MIGA
7:00pm - 8:30pm	Case series and panel discussion	Chair, Professor Guy Maddern Head of the Discipline of Surgery, The University of Adelaide
		All speakers
8:30pm	Close

